

NEW RELEASES - Aug 8th 2011: Jumping Your Highness

Written by Administrator

Monday, 08 August 2011 16:24 - Last Updated Monday, 26 September 2011 10:51

PAUL - U.K. comedy team Simon Pegg and Nick Frost (HOT FUZZ, SHAUN OF THE DEAD) wrote and star in this comedy about two British sci-fi geeks who rent an RV for a road trip down the U.S.'s infamous "extraterrestrial highway." What they encounter is a sarcastic, obnoxious alien voiced by Seth Rogen, recently escaped from Area 51, with Jason Bateman and Sigourney Weaver on his trail...

OUTSIDE THE LAW (aka HORS-LA-LOI) - Another Best Foreign Oscar nominee for director Rachid Bouchareb (DAYS OF GLORY). This drama about the Algerian struggle for independence from France spans decades and plays like a gangster thriller crossed with a historical epic. Something for everyone!

YOUR HIGHNESS - A medieval sword-and-sorcery spoof from the director of PINEAPPLE EXPRESS, starring Danny McBride (EASTBOUND & DOWN), James Franco (127 HOURS), Natalie Portman, and Zooey Deschanel? Critics will be critics with this one, but we couldn't help but laugh most of the way through it, thanks to the cast having way too much fun.

NEW RELEASES - Aug 8th 2011: Jumping Your Highness

Written by Administrator

Monday, 08 August 2011 16:24 - Last Updated Monday, 26 September 2011 10:51

JUMPING THE BROOM - The title of this well-reviewed dramedy refers to a tradition of Southern slaves in the U.S., for whom jumping over a broom signified marriage at a time when it was legally forbidden to them. The story concerns the culture clash of two African-American families brought together at a wedding, one of them wealthy inhabitants of Martha's Vineyard, the other a working-class family from Brooklyn.

EXPORTING RAYMOND - This new documentary chronicles TV producer Phil Rosenthal's awkward adventures making VORONINY, the Russian-language version of EVERYBODY LOVES RAYMOND.

SUPER - Rainn Wilson (THE OFFICE) is a prep cook whose recovered-addict wife (Liv Tyler) leaves him for the local big-time drug dealer (Kevin Bacon). Inspired by a Christian-themed superhero TV show, Wilson becomes 'The Crimson Bolt,' thwacking criminals on the head with...a wrench. A young comic book store employee (Ellen Page, JUNO) discovers his identity and becomes his sidekick in his quest to save his wife from sin... Warning: not for the squeamish...at all.

LOUIE: Season 1 - Prolific stand-up comedian and comedy writer Louis C.K. (SNL, CONAN O'BRIEN, THE CHRIS ROCK SHOW, POOTIETANG, etc.) stars as a newly-divorced father raising two young daughters while struggling with disastrous first dates, high school bullies, booze-addled play dates, and general modern chaos.

MARS NEEDS MOMS - "The Supervisor" on Mars needs help raising all the baby martians that are growing up out of the ground sans parents, so she abducts Milo's mother (Joan Cusack), because she's been doing such a fantastic job with Milo (Set Green), though Milo doesn't seem to know it...

NEW RELEASES - Aug 8th 2011: Jumping Your Highness

Written by Administrator

Monday, 08 August 2011 16:24 - Last Updated Monday, 26 September 2011 10:51
